COUNTY OF CHENANGO

LOCAL LAW NO. 2 OF 1963

A LOCAL LAW establishing a department of highway in and for the County of Chenango and prescribing rules and regulations in matter of administration of same.

BE IT ENACTED by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Chenango as follows:

Section 1. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of the Highway Law in respect to the construction and maintenance of highways, roads and bridges and the control of snow and ice thereon within the County, there is hereby established a department of County Government to be known as the department of highways of the County of Chenango.

g2. The head of said department shall be the County Superintendent of highways, appointed pursuant to the provisions of section one hundred of the Highway Law, whose salary shall be fixed by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Chenango, payable by the County Treasurer in semi-monthly installments and who shall be paid in addition thereto the actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of his official duties, including a mileage allowance for the miles actually and necessarily traveled on official business by the use of his own automobile as fixed by said board, upon the audit of duly verified claims therefor by said board. Said board of supervisors may remove such county superintendent of highways for malfeasance or misfeasance in office, upon written charges, after an opportunity to be heard not less than five days after the service upon such superintendent of highways of a copy of such charges.

S3. The term of office of such county superintendent of highways shall be four years, unless sooner removed by the Board of Supervisors as above provided, or by the department of public works as provided in the Highway Law. A vacancy in the office of County Superintendent of Highways shall be filled by the Board of Supervisors for the unexpired term as prescribed by law.

S4. The County Superintendent of Highways shall have and perform all of the powers and duties conferred on county superintendents of highways by the Highway Law, the General Municipal Law, the Vehicle and Traffic Law, and any other general or special law, and shall perform such additional and related duties as may be prescribed and directed by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Chenango. He shall have the supervision and control of all persons employed in the department of highways.

S5. The County Superintendent of highways may appoint qualified persons to the positions of employment established from time to time by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Chenango for the department of highways, including those persons who have heretofore held positions of the same grade by employment of the county superintendent of highways, and who are now qualified for such positions under the Civil Service Law, and such appointments shall be deemed a continuation of the services of said persons in said respective positions.

S6. The County Superintendent of highways, with the approval of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Chenango, may appoint for a term not extending beyond the term of office of said county superintendent of highways, and at pleasure remove, a deputy county superintendent of highways, to serve at such compensation as may be fixed from time to time by the said board of supervisors. Such deputy shall act for and have all the powers and duties of such county superintendent of highways during his inability to act as such county superintendent of highways, or during the regular or approved vacation period of such county superintendent of highways.

S7. Subject to the written approval of the highway committee of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Chenango, the County Superintendent of highways shall, within the amount appropriated for that purpose, appoint and employ such other persons as may be necessary for the construction and maintenance of county roads and bridges and the control of snow and ice thereon and the maintenance of the county garage, and fix the salary and compensation of such employees.

S8. The County Superintendent of highways may procure at the expense of the County of Chenango a blanket undertaking from any duly authorized corporate surety covering the officers, clerks and employees in the department of highways indemnifying the County of Chenango against losses through the failure of the officers, clerks and employees covered thereunder faithfully to perform their duties, or to account properly for all moneys or property received by virtue of their positions or employment.

s9. The County Superintendent of Highways, with the approval of the highway committee of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Chenango may adopt rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, for the conduct of the affairs and business of the department of highways.

S10. This local law shall take effect on the tenth day after it shall have been adopted, and certified copies thereof have been filed as required by Section three hundred six of the County Law.
