CHENANGO COUNTY ANNOUNCES CONTINUOUS RECRUITMENT DECENTRALIZED EVALUATION OF TRAINING AND EXPERIENCE EXAMINATION OPEN TO THE PUBLIC FOR

BASIC LIFE SUPPORT TECHNICIAN

APPLICATIONS ARE ACCEPTED CONTINUOUSLY - CANDIDATES ARE TESTED
PERIODICALLY AS THERE IS A NEED FOR ADDITIONAL ELIGIBLES.

PROCESSING FEE

The New York State Department of Civil Service has implemented a fee for examination services. Accordingly, you must submit a seven dollar and fifty cent ($7.50) NON-REFUNDABLE application processing fee for each separately numbered examination for which you apply, unless you can qualify for an application processing fee waiver as explained below.

Application processing fees should be paid at the time an application for examination is filed.

DO NOT SEND CASH IN THE MAIL. Checks or money orders made payable to the Chenango County Treasurer will be accepted. Cash will also be accepted if paying in person. Write the examination number(s) on the check or money order. If a check is returned for insufficient funds, you may be subject to penalties as provided by law. If you take the examination before the County receives notice that your check was returned for insufficient funds, you will be disqualified. You will not receive a final rating for the examination and your name will not be placed on the eligible list established as a result of the examination, or you will be restricted from certification and appointment from the resulting eligible list if the eligible list was already established.

AS NO REFUNDS OF APPLICATION PROCESSING FEES WILL BE MADE, YOU ARE URGED TO COMPARE YOUR QUALIFICATIONS CAREFULLY WITH THE REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION STATED IN THE "MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS" SECTION OF THE EXAMINATION ANNOUNCEMENT, AND FILE ONLY FOR THOSE EXAMINATIONS FOR WHICH YOU ARE CLEARLY QUALIFIED, AND FOR THOSE EXAMINATIONS YOU INTEND TO TAKE. The education and experience (including the percentage of time spent personally performing the duties of each employment) you indicate on the application will be verified and compared to the "minimum qualifications" for the position. Omissions or vagueness will NOT be interpreted in your favor.

APPLICATION PROCESSING FEE WAIVER: The application processing fee will be waived for candidates who certify to the Chenango County Personnel Office that they are either unemployed and primarily responsible for the support of a household, or that they are receiving public assistance. If you can verify eligibility for an application processing fee waiver for this examination, complete a "Request for Examination Fee Waiver and Certification" form and submit it with your application. "Request for Examination Fee Waiver and Certification" forms may be obtained from the Chenango County Personnel Office or online at www.co.chenango.ny.us/personnel. All claims for an application processing fee waiver are subject to verification. False statements regarding eligibility for an application processing fee waiver will result in disqualification and/or lead to revocation of a resulting appointment. As application processing fees are NON-REFUNDABLE do not submit an application processing fee with your application for examination if you are or will be requesting an application processing fee waiver.

SALARY Varies by jurisdiction

LOCATION OF POSITIONS Positions with this job title are in the Village of New Berlin, the Village of Oxford and the Village of Sherburne. The eligible list resulting from this examination will be used to fill vacancies that occur during the life of the eligible list.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENT/
PREFERENCE There are no residency requirements to compete in this examination. However, preference in appointment may be given to successful candidates who have been residents of the appointing municipality for at least four (4) months immediately preceding the scheduled test date.

DUTIES Positions with this job title are in the Village of New Berlin, the Village of Oxford and the Village of Sherburne. An employee in this class responds along with a volunteer ambulance crew to the scene of emergencies. The Basic Life Support Technician provides first-aid and emergency medical treatment to injured or ill persons both at the scene and while en-route to a hospital or an air transport landing zone and monitors a patient's medical condition and vital signs during transport. The incumbent also stands by at the scene of non-medical emergencies to monitor the medical condition of emergency services personnel working at the scene and to provide medical treatment if needed. Duties may also involve driving an ambulance when a driver is not available and when a patient being transported can be monitored by another Basic Life Support Technician or by an Advanced Life Support Technician. The incumbent is also responsible for completing pre-hospital care reports, daily call logs and drug and medical supply and inventory records; for cleaning and decontaminating the ambulance and restocking it with drugs and medical supplies to bring it back to pre-call conditions; for performing general housekeeping duties at the fire station; and for making presentations on emergency service career and volunteer opportunities. Patient care is delivered in accordance with Susquehanna Regional Emergency Medical Services (SREMS) Basic Life Support Adult and Pediatric Treatment Protocols and within the scope of the employee's Emergency Medical Technician Certification as regulated by the New York State Department of Health, and the medical directives of medical control facility doctors. Work is performed under the administrative supervision of the Mayor with general oversight being provided in the Village of New Berlin by the village Ambulance Service's volunteer Chief Operating Officer and/or Supervisor, and in the Village of Oxford and the Village of Sherburne by the volunteer Emergency Medical Services Chief. Does related work as required.

4. Following appointment appointees must maintain current certification to practice as an EMT or EMT-D throughout employment.

PRE-EMPLOYMENT SCREENING REQUIREMENTS

Appointees to this position must have good moral character and a demonstrated record of respect for the requirements and processes of law, good judgment, a good driving record, and a physical condition commensurate with the demands of the position. Accordingly, candidates who accept a conditional offer of employment may be required to successfully undergo some or all of the screenings listed below to receive appointment. For some screenings, candidates will be required to sign a release of information to authorize the municipality's access to information contained in a variety of records or be asked to submit relevant documents.

- 1.) A driving record history check;
- 2.) A medical examination;
- 3.) A drug screening;
- 4.) A criminal record check; and
- 5.) A background investigation.

SUBJECTS OF EXAMINATION

There will be no written test for this examination. The examination will consist of an evaluation of your training and experience as presented on your Application for Examination and the accompanying summary you are required to submit with your Application for Examination. You are, therefore, asked to complete your Application for Examination in detail and include with your application a summary of all pertinent training and experience in sufficient detail so that your background may be evaluated against the duties of the position.

In your summary of training include all college course work, formal in-service training, seminars and workshops you have attended. You must specify either the number of credits received or the number of contact hours and dates of attendance. Also include a copy of your valid New York State professional license or EMT certification or documentation indicating eligibility for such licensure or certification. Specify the date that your license or certification was first issued. You should also include a copy of college transcripts.

In your summary of experience, you must specify the dates of your employment and/or volunteer experience, the number of hours worked per week, your exact job title, and the main duties for each position. Be sure to clarify which paid or volunteer experience was as an EMT in ambulance service, and which experience was in a non-ambulance emergency medical service. Be specific; vagueness and ambiguity will not be resolved in your favor. Candidates who submit incomplete applications, documentation, or training and experience summaries may be disqualified.

CANDIDATE RESPONSIBILITY It is the responsibility of candidates to provide all necessary documentation and to complete all relevant parts of the application. To receive credit for experience—either qualifying or against a rating scale—you must show basic information such as employer name and address, name and title of supervisor, hours worked per week, dates of employment to include month and year started and ended, etc. A copy of a verifiable transcript for required education and a copy of the required license or professional certificate must be submitted.

All information must be submitted by close of filing. Candidates who submit incomplete applications and documentation may be disqualified.

ELIGIBLE LISTS Successful candidates will have their names placed on an eligible list for this title in order of their final rating, and will remain eligible for appointment for one (1) year from the date the eligible list is established. Appointments from an eligible list must be made from the three highest standing candidates willing to accept appointment.

APPLICATIONS FROM/TO/BY Application forms may be obtained at the Chenango County Personnel Department or online at www.co.chenango.ny.us/personnel. You may also request one be mailed to you by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to: Personnel Department, Chenango County Office Building, 5 Court St., Norwich, NY 13815.

Do not wait until the last day to file your application. Applications that are postmarked after the last filing date, or personally delivered to our office after 5:00 P.M. on the last filing date cannot be considered. The applicant should make sure EVERY question on the application is answered, including the estimated percentage of time spent personally performing the duties of each employment (i.e., 5%, 20%, etc.). Incomplete applications will be disapproved. Candidates will be notified of the disposition of their application prior to the examination. If notice of acceptance or disapproval is not received at least four days prior to the date of the written examination, please call this office at (607) 337-1470.

A separate application and appropriate processing fee must be submitted for each separately numbered examination for which a candidate wishes to apply. Applications must contain the correct examination title and/or number in order to be considered.

This department does not acknowledge receipt of applications and does not accept responsibility for non-delivery or postal delay.

CREDIT FOR CHILDREN OF FIREFIGHTERS AND POLICE OFFICERS KILLED IN THE LINE OF DUTY

In conformance with Section 85-a of the Civil Service Law, children of firefighters and police officers killed in the line of duty shall be entitled to receive an additional ten points in a competitive examination for original appointment in the same municipality in which his or her parent has served. If you are qualified to participate in this examination and are a child of a firefighter or police officer killed in the line of duty in this municipality, please inform this office of this matter when you submit your application for examination. A candidate claiming such credit has a minimum of two months from the application deadline to provide the necessary documentation to verify additional credit eligibility. However, no credit may be added after the eligible list has been established.

VETERANS' CREDITS

Veterans and disabled veterans who are eligible for additional credits must submit an application for veteran's credits prior to the establishment of the eligible list for the examination. Only those veterans who have served on active duty during the creditable periods of war will be eligible for veteran's credits.

Veteran's credits will only be added to the score of a candidate who has attained a passing grade of 70 or higher. Veteran's credits may not be used to achieve a passing score.

Effective January 1, 1998 the State Constitution was amended to permit a candidate currently on active duty in the armed forces to apply for and be conditionally granted veterans' credits in examinations. To apply for conditional veterans' credits a candidate must submit an application for conditional veterans' credits prior to establishment of the eligible list. Any candidate who applies for conditional veterans' credits must also provide proof of current active military status to receive the conditional credits.

No credit may be granted after the establishment of the eligible list.

It is the responsibility of the candidate to provide appropriate documentary proof indicating that their military service was in time of war, as defined in Section 85 of the Civil Service Law, and that the candidate received an honorable discharge or was released under honorable conditions in order to be certified at a score including the veteran's credit.

For open competitive examinations, veterans' credits are applied to the final score of passing candidates as follows:

Non-disabled Veteran.....5 Points
Disabled Veteran..... 10 Points

Effective January 1, 2014 the State Constitution was further amended to entitle veterans who have used non-disabled veterans' credits for a Civil Service appointment or promotion with New York State or a local government, and who were/are subsequently certified as being a disabled war-time veteran by the United States Department of Veterans Affairs, to additional credits for a subsequent appointment or promotion. If you wish to claim the additional disabled veterans' credits please contact the Chenango County Personnel Office for further instruction. All requests and required documentation must be received by the Chenango County Personnel Office prior to the establishment of the eligible list resulting from an examination.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS AND INFORMATION:

1. All statements on the application are subject to verification. Falsification of any part of the "Application for Employment" or any deception or attempt to practice deception in the application or employment process will result in disqualification and/or lead to revocation of a resulting appointment.
2. It is the responsibility of the candidate to notify the Chenango County Personnel Office of any change in name, address or telephone number. Failure to notify this office of a change of name or address may result in disqualification for examination or certification for appointment following examination if admittance notices, canvas letters or other communications are undeliverable. No attempt will be made to locate candidates who have moved.

PREPARATION/RATING OF EXAMINATION:

This examination will be prepared and rated in accordance with Section 23(2) of the Civil Service Law. The provisions of the New York State Civil Service Law, rules and regulations dealing with the preparation and rating of examinations, as well as establishment and certification of eligible lists for positions in the classified service, will apply to this examination.

EEOE: Chenango County is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer and does not discriminate on the basis of one's race, creed, color, national origin, age, sex, religion, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, marital status, military status, familial status, domestic violence victim status, predisposing genetic characteristics, prior arrest or conviction record, reproductive health decision making, or any other status protected by State or Federal Law.
