Attention Parents! Do Not Wait, Vaccinate

The end of the school year is here! Chenango County Health Department would like to remind all parents and caregivers to schedule a physical for their child with a primary care provider during these summer months. The New York State Department of Health states many children are behind on vaccinations. Children require specific vaccines before entering school each year. This is especially true when entering kindergarten and grades 6th, 7th, and 12th. Make sure your child is ready for the next school year and avoid the end of summer rush by making an appointment today! Appointments fill up fast at provider offices, if your child is not fully vaccinated by the start of the new school year they will be excluded from school until they are up to date. This may cause parents to miss work and children to fall behind in school. Save yourself the hassle, call your provider and have your child ready well before school begins!
